

Win a genuine Bruce Foxtan shirt! Posted In []

Competition

"To coincide with the forthcoming "35th Anniversary of All Mod Cons Tour" we have got a fantastic prize for one very lucky winner. Bruce has donated one of his original stage worn shirts which you can see on the photograph below, this is the white with large black polka dots which was worn as recently as Widnes last month. As this shirt is over thirty years old and has seen lots of active service n stage Bruce wants it made clear that it is well worn in places.

This is an original from Melanddi of Carnaby Street and has been worn on stage with The Jam and From the Jam. Any Jam collector knows how rare and sought after this kind of item is, especially with provenance.

To enter simply answer the two questions below, email your answers to guy.helliker@gmail.com before 12.00 on Wednesday 28th August including your name, address, mobile number and which of the All Mod Cons shows you are going to.

Question 1)

Name the classic Jam song which appears but was not originally credited on the All Mod Cons album.

Question 2)

On the original American release of All Mod Cons Billy Hunt was replaced by which song?

To ensure this special prize will go to a true fan we have made the question the tricky ones.

Normal rules apply.

Good luck"
